Offg: Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that one Hassan Sab purchased the the Kraswadi and the Suthuru toddy shops in Chamrajnagar Taluk Mysore District, at a monthly rental of ₹ 65/- and ₹ 41/- respective for the year 1900-01 He gave a cash security of one month s rent and produced one Mahomed Sab as surety for four months khist. He was not regular in paying the shop rent. He was allowed to work the shops till the close of the official year The defaulter had to pay ₹ 701/- at the end of his lease.

2. The defaultor had also taken trees during the period to work his shops. He failed to pay the balance of the second instalment of tree-tax of ₹ 170/-

3. Steps were taken to recover these arrears and the immoveable property of the defaulter was attached and sold for ₹ 15/- The deposit amount and the sale proceeds were adjusted towards the arrea as shown in the margin. There yet remains a balance of ₹ 752-6-7 due by the defaulter.

Demand.
Arrears of shop rent.	701-0-0
Arrears of tree tax.	170-0-0
Total	871-0-0
Collection.
Deposit amount.	102-15-10
Sale proceeds.	15- 0- 0
Interest on the latter sum.	0- 9- 7
Total	118- 9- 5
Balance due	752- 6- 7

4. Another Siddik Sab had pur-chased the Kagalvadi toddy shop of the same Taluk for ₹ 66/- a month during the same year. He paid one month's khist as securit and tendered the very same Mahome Sab ahomed Sab as surety for four months' rental. Though he was not egular in paying the rental he was permitted to work the shop At he end of his lease the total amount of arrears due by him was 517-13-2. Steps were taken to recover this amount The defaul ossessed no property. The property of the surety was therefore ttached and sold This amount and the original deposit were adjust owards the arrears as follows

Demand.
Arrears of shop rent	R 397- 6- 6
Arrears of tree-tax	120- 6- 8
Total	R517-13- 2
Collection.
Deposit amount	R 64- 5- 1
Sale proceeds	267- 1- 5	R272-1-5
Total	R 331- 6- 6
Balance.	R 186- 6- 8	R181-6-8

Thus the defaulter has to pay R 186-6-8.

5. The Deputy Commissioner reports in his No. 495, dated the 30th March 1914, that the arrears due from these two defaulters are irrecoverable and recommends the remission of the amounts outstandir against their respective names.

6. The Amildar was wrong in not having resold the shops as soon as the licensees became defaulters as well as the Range Ins--pector in entertaining T.T.4 applications from them in the months March and April 1901. The then Amildar is not in service now and the explanation of the Excise Inspector is not satisfactory. The Deputy Commissioner should not have accepted the same man as surety both the cases without enquiring into his solvency It is not possible to make any of the officers liable for the loss at this distance of time

7. Though certain reasons have been assigned by the Deputy Commissioner in his docket No. 610, dated the 13th March 191 for clubbing together the two items of arrears and it will serve no useful purpose to enter into an enquiry about this at the present stage Under these circumstances I request that orders of Gover-ment

Government may be kindly obtained for the amount being written off the account

8. The records with duplicate remission statements are sub-mitted for reference and return

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient servant

P Raghavendra Rao
